

"LAW AND ORDER" LEAGUE THE LATEST

o coal barons are out with idea. Have you heard of it? liking of the coal baron, and so past he has not been a lusty sup ly will conduct campaign at the state house under a banner of "Law and Order." He said he really is a good scheme. "Florida coal baron is really a scoundrel. In fact, the plan is senseless. It is the great

Had he been an upright supporter of the things he now so publicly criticizes there would not even have been a strike in the first place, for the very order he demands should give the striking miners everything they want. The coal baron knows very well that he cannot go before the people their assaults on Colorado and the latter's rights they continue their regime on Denver.

In casting about for a campaign that stands a chance of winning—the coal baron hits the sounding cry, "Law and order."

This wolf must put in the cloth-agencies of the coal baron's is hard to refrain from ad-monumental gail, colossal redundant but absurd political for genuine law and order in the coal baron's heart as People are not to be misled by trickery, such cheap political sleight of hand, such humorous attempt at turning the black into the white. There have been a day when the canorator with raucous voice and expansive vocabulary swayed the people his bidding, wank the conservative headlines break-explain why, needing the this side, the coal baron has his ridiculous law and order.

ould be laughable, if it were possible this crusade, of these any laws, for a reign of law and order. Supposing that all the righteous laws forced during the last few years would the operator be? We have had to close his commission, establish a system of more days which would keep his

of the shylocks clutches, maintain humane safety ap- mines; refrain from im- breakers; cease to arm ullies as necessary guards erties to anticipate honest give his employees the right stop buying and bribing ance holders and lobbyists; starver of babes, trampler on rights! This man a shouter for order? Well, if he is, then in the last, but to him by no of all that's absurd, ridiculous, unpay his just share of the able, and foolish, what next?—Free Press.

Much has been said about the membership of the delegates would be found

The Journalists repeatedly stated that the conference was not in the interests of the shipping interests. Mr. the head of the United Kingdom of Navigation and one of the delegates to the conference recently made a feeble attempt impression that the memorandum conference was really for the benefit of the public interest. He said "Memorandum for the President" Chamberlain says: "The membership of the conference included four Government officers administering laws and regulations of the sea, the fish-to the navigation, equipment, inspection, officers, merchant vessels; seventeen naval and marine architects and surveyors and engineers of societies; seventeen members or foreign Parliaments, and admiralty lawyers; ten

But experts in radiotelegraphy, hydrographers and meteorology, and naval officers not classified under any other occupations, and the American and British unions, or the total of 100,000, are to be sent anywhere to sea-manship from youth allowed the sea for many being called directly from Cape Capt. Charles, of the Lusitania, to take part in the search, thence returning to sea. It was observed that Mr. Chamberlain was compelled to classify ten of the ships as shipowners. Evidently, he had no other occupation. Nu-shipowners, however, were members of foreign Parliamentarians, etc. Since Mr. is himself always overruling the shipping interests it never occurred to him to inquire many members of the consular staffs as shipowners.

newly proposed constitution. The constitution is concerned with the financial organization for safety of life. This tally were taken it is concerned that a clear majority and open discussion of timely issues. extension division offers to furnish each organization with a copy of the constitution.

NEW LAW SUCCESSFUL

For a thorough knowledge of the facts and history as well as a understanding of all the modern popular government that have in the later constitutions of

During the period referred to the number of accidents reported and com-tion. The members of the engaged in a discussion of the topic, "New Constitution for a series of contests—local, dict, and state. Each con- posed discussion in which ev- speaker presents and an- swer of the subject as a con-of the thirteen congresses that contents will compete for at Indiana university in the of May.

high schools are eligible ship in the league, and one seventy-three high schools

It is believed that this is the remarkable record for high-class and efficiency made by any carrier in the history of competition. This service tends to promote a better understanding between employer and employee. The Federal laws a very large number of carriers would have found the information.

subject in the course of the trial was the way the heavy expense to the employer, the play, and the community health, nothing of the bitter feeling between injured and employer. Furthermore the decision of the court the man would in most cases be found to keep himself and his family from poverty, in many instances

...ing solely upon public charity... field (Cai), Union Labor Journal.

